

"I'm here to say that I'm standing with you. I urge Beverly Hospital to bargain in good faith, talk about the issues, and move forward. Do right by these hardworking nurses."

–U.S. Congresswoman Judy Chu
November 8 2011, Beverly Hospital
[at right with Beverly RNs, and addressing crowd]

A crowd of supporters rallied today at Beverly Hospital for Beverly Registered Nurses, including elected and community leaders, plus UNAC/UHCP members from St. Francis, Fountain Valley, Kaiser Baldwin Park, and Kaiser Downey, and members of other unions.

Addressing crowd, left to right: Dr. Ed Hernandez, California State Senate; Gustavo Camacho, Pico Rivera City Council; Andre Quintero, El Monte Mayor; Maria Elena Durazo, LA County Federation of Labor

"I am inspired by the courage I see in you...And I am here to tell you that you are stronger than dishonest negotiating tactics and that your cause is noble."

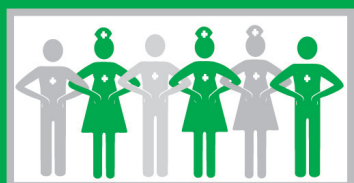

–California State Assembly Majority Leader Charles Calderon, in letter of support read to the crowd

Left to right: Lucy Tendido & Kathy Bennet TV interviews; Filipino-American Health Workers Association with banner

"I thought bargaining in good faith meant bargaining in good will. But the truth is it's a fight. We all want to be treated the best we can—workers and patients."

–Beverly Registered Nurse Mirka Bojarczak [right]

BEVERLY NURSES

Protecting our patients, our profession, our family