BARGAINING RAMPS UP NEXT WEEK

On Tuesday, August 17, our Blue Bargaining Team met with management and reached agreement on two articles, which will go to the full team next week for review and approval:

- Management Rights
- Reduction in Force

We are near agreement on Job Bidding and Filling Vacancies, and we continued valuable discussions on workload.

Progressing Toward National Bargaining

Next week our full team will bargain for two days:
Tuesday, August 24 and Thursday, August 26.

With the full team together, we'll work to resolve all outstanding topics before the remaining issues are escalated to the national bargaining table in September.

We anticipate the upcoming days may be longer than usual, as your team works to ensure that we get the best possible contract to meet the needs of our patients and bargaining unit members.

Keep Up the Support—Now is the Time!

Our bargaining team appreciates the support they've received from colleagues across the region. Keep it up!

Next week is an important week of bargaining as we will be finishing open topics and addressing economics and workload before escalation to the national table.

Be sure to wear shirts, buttons, and caps—and send photos! It's more important than ever next week to show your solidarity with our bargaining team.
